THE BULLETIN OF
STEUBENVILLE HIGH SCHOOL
STEUBENVILLE, OHIO

YEAR BOOK
NINETEEN HUNDRED AND TWENTY-SEVEN

FOREWORD

As the great advertising companies compose their clever slogans which live in the minds of the people, so do we endeavor to produce an Annual that will live on indefinitely in the minds of the readers.

And it is our hope that in the future, when you turn back the pages of this book, it will bring back happy memories of bygone school days.

The members of the Journalism Class wish to express their appreciation for the work done by Miss Elizabeth Blackburn toward making this Annual a success.

Until her resignation at mid-semester, she had supervised the publication of the weekly paper and Annual for four years, giving her best and clearly proving her devotion to our high school.

So we take this opportunity to express our thanks and to wish her the greatest of success in the future.

Last Will and Testament--Class of '27

We, the Seniors of 1927, being of sound and disposing mind, do hereby will and bequeath to the Junior Class the following:

I, Monica Carr, will my musical talent to Margaret Paisley.
I, Walter Shelton, will my love for Chemistry to Harold Freeland.
I, Lloyd Bowen, bequeath to Adrian Doyle, my standing with Miss Swab.
I, Grace Martin, am giving to Emma Tempest, my ability to make baskets.
I, Fred Alban, bequeath to Helen Gavin my wad of "Juicy Fruit," which is stuck under the left hand side of my desk in Room 22.

I, Virginia McCoy, will three inches of my height to Martha Wildpret, provided that she doesn't grow anymore.

I, Harry Smith, will my presiding ability to next year's Senior President.
I, Martha Forbes, will to next year's Editor the work and she has my sympathy.
I, Mary E. Simpkins, will my ability to rate men to Mary J. Dunn.
I, Leota Everson, will my ability to always know my lessons to John Stanko, providing he makes use of it.

I, Andrew Porter, will my love for red-headed girls to James McGough.
I, Jay Hervey, bequeath to James Potter my ability to get to school just before tardy bell rings.

I, Anne Bond, will my mild disposition to Mary Agnes Davin.
I, Vera Ainsworth, bequeath my gabbiness to Blanche Weldon.
I, Margaret Long, will to Marjorie Day my ability to remain unmoved by the sight of a mouse.

I, Robert Teitlebaum, will my oratorical ability to Anthony Reducha.
I, Edward Ekey, will my apparent innocence to Robert "Wamba" Blackburn.
I, Eleanor Mentzer, will my curly locks to Betty Egan.
I, Doris Morton, will by unbotheredness to Mary K. McCoy.
I, Edward Mushrush, will my love for Junior Girls to Lewis Albrecht provided you stay away from one Junior Girl.

I, Frederick McLain, will my shiekish appearance to Kenneth Dunlope.
I, "Wee" Watson, will my personality and ability as a dancer to Helen Yost.

We, the Senior Class, will to '28 and the rest of the school, our ability to find new excuses to give Mrs. Childs. They have mostly all been discovered, but good luck to you to find a few more.

We, Cloda Mick and Bessie Newton, will to Mary K. Brady and others who get there first, our permanent seats at the office.

I, Ewing Farrington, will to some well meaning Junior my ability to bother Miss Creamer.

We, Editor, Business Manager, and General Manager, bequeath to the unfortunate ones of next year our ability to write a class will.

We do hereby set our hand and seal to this, our Last Will and Testament, this first day of April, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven.

Post Mortem

Last night as I lay slumbering,
There came a dream so fair;
I dreamed the Judgement Day had come,
Our faculty was there.

St. Peter sat at heaven's gate,
And let me sit there, too
And listen to the judgements given
As teachers travelled through.

Miss Sturgeon first came to the gate,
Attired in the latest gown;
St. Peter finally let her in,
But not without a frown.

Miss Blackburn came suddenly,
A-floating through the roof,
When asked why so pre-occupied,
Said, "I'm reading proof."

Miss Cattell's search for Cæsar,
Made Peter laugh out loud,
To think that our gentle teacher,
Should seek that high-brow crowd.

Mr. Pearce came with swinging stride,
And pondering on the door,
"Your punishment," the good Saint said,
"Is prone falling on the floor."

Miss Lyons with perky head a-tilt,
Approached as in a trance;
St. Peter then did hesitate,
Until he saw her dance.

Then Miss Solt came within,
O'er flowing with good will;
St. Peter said, "Go right ahead,
Works waiting for you still."

Next Miss Jeffrey spoke to Peter;
The Saint said, "Step right in,
Your English essays are complete,
Account now for your sins."

Next came Miss Brown,
St. Peter rang the chime;
"She teaches well, but sad to tell,
Her quizzes are a crime."

Miss Applegate and Miss Pearce came next,
Attired in starch-white gowns,
They cooked for him a choicy meal,
He gave them both gold crowns.

Miss O'Dell and Mr. Turkopp,
Came at an awful speed,
St. Peter said, "Go right ahead,
But traffic cops please heed."

Mr. Grill and Mr. Lawrence came along,
A smile on both their faces;
St. Peter said, "I'm quite surprised,
You've left your earthly places."

Miss Swab and Mr. Phillips came,
With scarf and tie a-flying;
St. Peter said, "You've left your plays,
What do you mean by dying?"

"Punk" Cartledge managed to squeeze in
St. Peter hardly knew him;
He said, "You've left your old hat and coat,
Down in Wells' High Gym."

Now Miss Gilday came to the gate,
With a few books under her arm,
St. Peter said, "No, you're not late,
And up here you can come to no harm."

Last Mr. Mick hove in sight,
The trumpets rang out loud,
He doffed his hat, and made a speech,
Shook hands with Peter and bowed.

Of course the rest all got there too,
Tho' their names are not given here;
Yes, they are all sticking there like glue,
And nary a one has shed a tear.

So each in heaven enjoys his bliss,
They all seem glad they are there;
But still they all keep track of you,
So students, please take care!

Class Prophecy

"This is station N-O-W forecasting from the Well's Knowledge Building, Steubenville, Ohio. We have with us this evening a very noted speaker, Mr. Time, who will speak to you at this hour."

Good evening, folks. There are without a doubt many Seniors of 1927 who would like to know what the future holds for them. Well, lend me your ears and I'll tell you what I see.

"First I see Attorney Fred Alban working on a divorce case. As I look a little closer I see that Mrs. 'Rosie' Gaughan, nee Mary Engbers, is suing her husband, Gilbert, for a divorce on the 'coffe grounds' of not being 'Old Reliable.'

Next I see Martha Forbes as the latest wife of Richard Dix. This is only her sixth husband.

Floyd Bowen is "Ye Editor-in-Chief" of the famous Alikanna "Guess-it." The circulation totals thirteen.

Next I see Doctor "Mes" Simkins, noted Molar Extractor, working on the good will of Walter Harris.

Mona Coffman is coach of the girl's basketball team of Wintersville.

James Giles is a missionary in China or some other Oriental country.

"Dick" Shelton and Wilma McCann are happily married and are kept busy attending to their garden and offspring at their beautiful residence in George's Run.

"Bunnie" Fisher is a noted "Parlez-vous" teacher in the famous Cross Creek University.

Monsieur Edward Ekey has gained fame through his "Le Petite Modiste Shoppe" on Market Street. He has as his four steady models the Mlles. Virginia Schwartz, Coletta Conley, Helen Gittings and Virginia McCoy.

William Goode has reached fame through his famous painting "Whither Shall We Wander?" using as his model Ruth Culp.

"Andy" Porter is in Dr. Donald Hale's Hospital, Mingo, under the care of nurse "Lib" Davies, suffering from a blow in the head, received from a flying steel rolling pin. Mr. Porter's wife, nee Rachel King, dealt the mighty blow. The rolling pin was manufactured by the Anathan Rolling Pin Company, and was guaranteed never to break.

Ewing Farrington and "Bill" Smith are in Paris studying "Outlines of Natural History" ? ? ? ?

"Tony" Myers recently bought out Ziegfield and is now conducting the famous "Myers Follies" in a cross country tour. The headliners are: David Pugh, doing the new hop, "Pink Bottom"; Harold Dorsch and Anne Bond, executing "The Dance of Spring", and Thomas Knox, the world's greatest tenor soloist.

Edward Mushrush and Virginia Passavant have been on the steps of matrimony for five years but have not acquired the necessary courage.

Harry Smith and his wife, nee Dorothy Sturgeon, having had such a success of marriage, are now conducting a Matrimonial Bureau in Wellsburg.

Cloda Mick recently achieved fame by swimming the Atlantic Ocean in twenty four hours. Her trainer was Mr. Douglas Smith.

Mabel Ruth Thomas, Ann Sutton and Vera Ainsworth are collaborating on the great novel of the day entitled, "The Persecution of Fleas."

William Schaefer, the woman's idol of the screen, is starring in his latest production "Rouge and Powder" at George Papulias' theatre in Brilliant, with Helen Weinstein playing the opposite role. The play was written by the noted playwright Miss Elizabeth Newton.

Gordon Greenberg's "Terrible Pieces of Eight," jazz hounds, are playing at the Saint Hotentot Hotel in Paint Settersburg, Florida. This famous hotel is owned by Duchess Helen Anderson. The personnel of the orchestra is :

Clark Campbell-----	Ivory Agitator	Louis Welsh-----	Trumpet Tooter
Stuart McKelvey-----	Violin Grinder	Domenic Trovarelli---	Clarinet Squeeler
Lester Lucas-----	Saxophone Moaner	Carol Hartford-----	Trombone Roarer
	David Cousley-----		Drum Pounder

Monica Carr is the world's greatest Prima Donna and is spending most of her time in Europe studying music.

Alexander Poushey, Pauline Pearce, Emma Ewing and Winifred Jenkins are teaching in the Brilliant High School.

George Cochran was elected President of the U. S. in the year 2000, while Frederick McLain is Vice President. A few of the senators are: Ralph Albaugh, Virginia Anderson, Margaret Amos, Claience Boger, Alan Blackburn, William Barr, John Fornwalt, Edith Federman and Doris Morton.

Jane Ieropol, Edna Schoppe and Golda Mae Perry are gold diggers in California. The climate is very suitable for "Peaches."

Almost all of the officials of Steubenville in the year 1990 are from the graduating class of '27. They are:

Mayor-----	James Stamm	Garbage Collector-----	Emmet Sanders
Treasurer--	Joseph Patton (Bad break)	Judges--	Vira Strobel and George Stenger
Auditor-----	William Pratley	"Cops",	Anthony Acconcia, Ralph Cat-
Chief of Police-----	Dorothy Barthold	trell,	Emilio DeLuca, Floyd Fraley,
Dog Catcher-----	Ernest Snodgrass	Clara Di Bacca,	Thelma Camp and
Justice of Peace-----	Harold Wright	Florence Greenberg.

Donald Dallas and Roy Beckett are life-savers on the beach of Tampa, Florida. They recently saved Gladys Burchfield from drowning.

James Layman has opened a new manufacturing center, where "Non Parkable Chewing Gum" is made. His office force includes: William Porter, Edgar Johns, Altai Flenniken, Elizabeth Morrow, Jane McCartney and John Leech.

Anna Love runs a dancing school in the Fort Steuben Hotel. Her specialty is the "Mosquito Jump." Several of her steady patrons are: Virginia Welling, Marian Wolpert, Louise Morris and Ruth Noltemeyer.

Paul Narragon is playing "Santy Claus" and is living in Alaska.

Eleanor MacPherson, Lawyerless, is settling up the estate of Edward Weinman, recently deceased. Every girl that was ever in his arms expects to be in his will.

Carl Neiman and John MacMichael are cow punchers in Texas, while Albert Laman and Hannah Jenkins are spending their millions in Texas Castor Oil Wells.

Robert Teitlebaum and George Floto, world's greatest debaters, recently won fame in Denmark. The subject was, Resolved: "That hot-dogs should have a license."

Ruth Eller is a surgeoness and is in partnership with Agnes Dye, undertaker.

Fay Poindexter is a chiropodist in Wheeling. Her assistants are Margaret Bowie and John Murray.

Pearce Cable is an antique collector in Chicago. Among his collections he has the false teeth of the recent King Isador Kempler.

Morris Moore has made millions through his new speed demon "The Spanket."

Joseph Heatherman is a great inventor. He manufactured a fly destroyer by which the flies are lured to the top of a small ladder and then pushed off. They fall and are killed on the hard saucer below. Robert Lenkner is counting his dollars while he pushes the flies.

Louise Watson is suffering from a bad case of freckled tonsils. She stood looking at the sun with her mouth open.

Clifford Bloomer is now living in Mars. He and Morris Kempler went up in their plane two years ago and have not returned. The worst is feared.

Ralph Groves is now residing in Massilon, where he was taken, after attempting to count the dots in Ego Simone's necktie.

Benjamin Jacques has taken over the Ringling Brothers Circus. Some of his features are:

Shortest man in world-----Alan Stone	Acrobats—Grace Martin, Elinor Mentzer, Helen Cohen, Florence Graham and Reise Swearingen.
Shortest woman in world..Ellen Coffman
Tallest man in world----Orant Cicone	Clowns—Vida Zimmerman, Charles McConnell, Thomas Gilson, Maurice Wilson, Mary Elizabeth Andrews, Mary Cicone, Martha Barr, Etta Halley.
Fat Lady-----Evelyn Stone
Bare Back Riders—Palmina Costanzo, Wayne Conn and Leota Everson.
Elephant Managers—Jerome Endich, Martin Rubin.	Tight Rope Walkers—Anna Cavanaugh, Ethel Cohen, Virginia Baker, Virginia Jennings.

Next I see a rich, elaborate home on Riverside Drive, New York, with "Bob" Wilson and Frances Hunter, owners, just in partnership, however. Edith Smith and Gladys Purviance are the maids, while Domenic Macedonio is the butler. Thurston Ryan is the janitor, Pauline Petrecca is the cook, and Donald Ralston is the valet.

Now I hear the melodious strains of an organ playing, "Here Comes the Bride." Oh pardon me, I mean "The Prisoner's Song." As the church door swings open Sara Stenger and Edward Udich come prancing in. Behind them is the bride's aunt and uncle, who are Willis Roush and Elizabeth Rodgers. Oh, yes and the grandfather and grandmother are there also, who are Margaret Long and Winfield Scott. By the way, I almost forgot the best man and bridesmaid, who are Helen Travis and Joseph O'Leary. Last, but not least in strolls the minister, John Stauffer in his long tail coat.

George Stanko is the only rival of Lon Chaney, he breaks all other face records.

Margaret Cook and Samuel Oliver recently eloped in one of Morris Moore's "Spanket" mentioned above. They did not reach Wellsburg in time, however, to get the license as Margaret's Aunt, Blanche Simpson, was there first.

Daniel Pinciario is an architect in Rome and Greece.

Thelma Stone is demonstrating "That Skin you love to touch" for Mr. Hub.

Alice May, the last I heard, is still punching a clock for debates.

The following are members of the female seminary of Peoria:

Anna Zambotti, Mary Wasson, Mary Zamboria, Mary Thompson, Esther Temp-est, Helen Slater, Mildred Stevens, Anna Smith, Grace Roach, Catherine Renda, Ethel Lewis, Bernice Kuhens, Mary McConnell, Ida Levite and Catherine Richards.

Gee! but I'm tired, bring me a glass of water."

The Bulletin had two outstanding aims to accomplish this year. First, to publish a better Annual than had ever been put out before, and second, to clear the debt accumulated by last year's class. We will allow each patron of the Bulletin to answer the first for himself. By the concentrated effort and co-operation of every member of the Journalism class the second goal of the year has been reached. In October the members of the class collected one hundred dollars from the advertisers of last year's Annual. Later in the year a professional cast was brought from New York to stage "Seventh Heaven" in the Auditorium; one hundred dollars was cleared by this drama. The class had a deficit of fifty dollars which was more than taken care of by the Boat Excursion on April 29th.

With the close of the first semester Miss Blackburn who had been with us four years left Steubenville to accept a position in Cleveland. It was a critical time for a vacancy to occur in this department, but it was immediately filled by Miss Virginia Howard.

Student Council

President	FREDERICK ALBAN
Vice President	EDWARD WEINMAN
Secretary	DOROTHY STURGEON
Sergeant-at-Arms	THOMAS KNOX
Advisor	FOREST J. MICK

One of the most vital assets of the high school is the Student Council, in which the students have an opportunity to give their own opinions on all questions affecting them, and also to open new fields of discussion and action. The Council, which is composed of representative students, can reflect these opinions in conference with students at Home Room Assemblies.

Although many problems necessarily focus the attention of the Council on immediate matters, the organization keeps ever before it the vision of a better student and a greater high school.

Soon after the opening session the Lyceum Drive was launched by Council to be followed by Courtesy Week. "The first duty of every man, woman, and child is to so order their lives that they may make the least possible demand at all times upon the energy of others." This was the slogan requested by the Student Council to be made effective throughout the school. Then came the drive for the Hospital. Ticket sales for various plays given through the year were handled by the Council.

Council next asked the Board of Education to place some protection on the landing between the second and third floors. The members of the board granted this request stating that they appreciated the effort in bettering the condition of the school.

These Features practically completed the work for the years 1926-1927.

Honor Society

Steubenville Chapter Number 281 of the National Honor Society was this year composed of twenty-nine members. Membership is based on scholarship, leadership, service and character. The constitution of the society states, "The object shall be to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage development of character in pupils of the school. Candidates must stand in the upper quarter of their class."

At the first meeting, the officers of the society were elected. Frederick McClain was chosen President; Martha Forbes, Vice President, and Leota Everson, Secretary. Mr. George Pearce is treasurer.

Miss Mary Brown, Miss Helen Melville, Mr. J. B. Hughes, Mr. George Pearce, and Mr. F. J. Mick are the faculty advisers. They, along with officers, make up the council which has the power of expelling members, proposing new ones, and making up the programs.

The Honor Society took for its immediate project the backing of the debate teams. The members were divided into two rival squads, for the sale of tickets. The result, coupled with the efforts of the Booster's Club, was a crowded auditorium for the debate, something which is very unusual in history of debate attendance in Steubenville High School.

The following is a list of the active members:

Leota Everson, Martha Forbes, Frederick McClain, Doris Morton, Virginia Welling, Mabel Ruth Thomas, Floyd Bowen, George Cochran, James Anathan, Alice May, James Stamm, Emma Ewing, Edward Ekey, Monica Carr, Ernest Snodgrass, Mary Wasson, Margaret Long, Mary Elizabeth Andrews, Benjamin Jacques, Virginia McCoy, Elizabeth Newton, Clark Campbell, Ann Sutton, William Schaefer, Mona Coffman, Lyda Mary Fisher, Edward Weinman, Cloda Mick, Ruth Culp and Paul Schwartz.

Vice President	RALPH MUNSLOW
Secretary	GILHAN DICKISON
Director	HUGO MIKSCH
Drum Major	GILBERT GAUGHAN

The past year saw the High School Band more in demand than ever. Late in June of last year the Band journeyed to Youngstown in a special car to play at the state convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The same trip was made in the Fall when the football team played South High of Youngstown.

Besides playing at all the games the Band was given the place of honor in the Homecoming Celebration November 11th.

Several days later the Chamber of Commerce took the Band on an inspection tour over the new road to Bergholz, returning to Richmond where it played at the official opening of the new road from Wintersville to East Springfield.

Two three-day engagements were played at two of the local theatres. First at the Grand and the week preceding Christmas at the Capitol. The Band played on the stage at the Strand for the Thanksgiving Assembly.

The first appearance of the Band this year, before the public was to advertise the play "Wild Rose" given for its benefit. The last known engagement of the Band was the concert given in assembly the week after spring vacation.

It is expected that the Band will play at the baseball games this spring as it has done in the past.

Members of the Band are: Clarinets, Gaughan, Goode, O'Leary, Munslow, Walton and Weyls; Saxophones, McGough, Doepke, Stevens, Lucas, Crewson and Maley; Cornets, Dunlope, Leech, Armitage, Merryman, Levinson, DiGregory, Bonham and Stauffer; Trombones, Atkinson, Heffley and Bennett; Bass Horns, Weinman, Guthrie and Kernohan; Altos, Neiman, Unitan and Yocum; Baritone, Cable; Snare Drums, Jones and Dickison; Bass Drum, Schaefer, Assistant, Cable.

The Senior Play

Mrs. Martyn	Mona Coffman
Mrs. Wheeler	Ruth Culp
Mr. Wheeler	Floyd Bowen
Bobby Wheeler	Robert Teitlebaum
Cora Wheeler	Helen Anderson
Violet Pinney	Mary E. Andrews
Clarence	Edward Weinman
Della	Martha Forbes
Dinwiddle	William Smith
Hubert Stem	Frederick Alban

A little comedy, a little drama, and a little mystery are all mixed up in "Clarence", by Booth Tarkington, the play presented by the Senior class of 1927.

The play opens in the office of Mr. Wheeler who seems to have much domestic trouble. In the first place Mr. Wheeler, much to Mrs. Wheeler's dismay, is quite infatuated with Miss Violet Pinney, Cora's governess. Cora thinks she is in love with Mr. Hubert Stem, who comes to see her only to be within reach of Violet. Then Cora's brother Bobby has just been expelled from school, this being his third. But Bobby's troubles are far more complex at home. He has kissed Della the maid, while her fiancée, Dinwiddle, the butler, was eavesdropping. Della claims Bobby must marry her or she will bring a lawsuit for breach of promise. Clarence, an innocent weakling in soldier's uniform, drifts into Mr. Wheeler's office and finds out all the family secrets through Bobby's wagging tongue. So Mr. Wheeler has to take him home to keep him silent.

Now the great change takes place. Clarence discards his glasses, straightens himself up, and puts on a good-looking suit. He surprises the whole family, for he really looks handsome. He plays the sax and very cunningly gets rid of the insistent Mr. Stem, who had become annoying to Violet. Even the critical Bobby seems satisfied.

But Mr. Stem cannot be stopped so easily. He finds in the paper that a certain Charles Short has deserted. What Clarence's last name is, is somewhat of a mystery, and so Hubert charges Clarence as being a deserter. Clarence says he knows two or three Clarence Shorts, but he refuses to say that any of them correspond to the man in the picture.

Clarence becomes very angry and shouts out :

"You ought to know me. I'm the greatest living authority on the Coleoptera."

Then encyclopedias, dictionaries, and "Who's Who" begin to fill the stage.

Who Clarence is, whom Violet marries, and what is Bobbie's and Mr. Wheeler's fate is evolved in a very pleasant ending.

S. H. S. Debating Teams

Debate

Five years ago the schools of Martins Ferry, Bellaire, and Steubenville formed the Ohio Valley Debating League. Up to 1925, Bellaire had won two decisions and Steubenville had won two. No debates were participated in by the members of the triangle last year. This year interest was again renewed and March 11 was set for the date of the debates.

The question agreed upon by the various schools was: "Resolved: That the Direct Primary Method of Nominating Public Officials Should Be Abolished." It was determined that the affirmative teams should travel. Martins Ferry's Affirmative team met Steubenville's Negative Team at Steubenville. Bellaire's Affirmative Team met Martins Ferry Negative Team at Martins Ferry.

Steubenville's Affirmative Team met Bellaire's Negative Team at Bellaire.

In each case the negative teams won, thus resulting in a tie. It then became necessary to reckon the winner on the percentages of each individual debater. According to the Judges decision Steubenville won the triangle by 21 points. Due to the fact that one of the judges at Martins Ferry neglected to grade the first affirmative speaker as directed, Bellaire and Martins Ferry refused to accept the decision of the Judges. Disregarding the Judges' decision Bellaire still holds the cup; but with the season of 1927 the Ohio Valley Debating League has been brought to a close.

The debaters of Steubenville exhibited much ability and knowledge of real debate and should be commended for the concentrated efforts they have made to bring debating to recognized plane in S. H. S.

The Affirmative Team of Steubenville High School consisted of Frederick Alban, captain, as first speaker; George Floto, as second speaker, and Michael Clement, as third speaker. The Negative Team consisted of Paul Schwartz, captain, as first speaker; Sarah Adler, as second speaker, and Robert Teitlebaum, as third speaker.

Miss Mildred Swab, teacher of English, member of Pi Kappa Delta, National Honorary Debating Fraternity, coached the teams.

Histrionic Club

The Histrionic Club presented three one-act plays during the year of 1926-27, in high school assemblies. It is one of the requirements of the club that every member of the society appear at least once before an audience.

A Christmas play "Upon The Waters," was given in December. It depicted the life of an elderly lady who derived much pleasure from giving to the poor. Her wealthy relatives attempted to see who could give her the most pleasure at Christmas. Her daughter, who made it possible for her to give to the needy afforded her the greatest pleasure.

"Sylvia's Aunts" and "Rooms to Let" were one act comedies given at a later date. The former was acted in a college room to which two maiden aunts were visiting to investigate college life in the interest of their niece, Sylvia. Due to erased identification marks on their pictures the girls made great blunders and thoroughly discouraged the aunts. Sylvia, however, was allowed to enter college through the aid given by her uncle. "Rooms to Let" was the second of the college plays presented. A talkative landlady was trying to sell her rooms to new prospectives. The former roomers, young college men, and the young ladies with their aunt, after many interesting predicaments, were all satisfied.

Steubenville High School's Hi-Y club was organized on October 14, 1921 with fourteen members and now has grown to a group of about forty. This club has always taken an active part in the High School and Y. M. C. A. activities, having in its six years of existence, brought many well known speakers here and put on several successful Vocational, Friendship and Come Clean Campaigns.

The Hi-Y club belongs to a National Organization which have adopted the four square platform of Clean Speech, Clean Living, Clean Scholarship and Clean Athletics to "Create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character."

The members of the Hi-Y club are: Fred Alban, Lewis Albrecht, William Ball, Alan Blackburn, Dean Brandt, William Curn, George Cochran, Robert Donohoo, Harold Dorsch, Emilio DeLuca, Adrian Doyle, Edward Ekey, Lawrence Evans, Ewing Farrington, James Giles, Ralph Groves, Paul Groves, Glendon Gould, Thomas Gilson, Donald Hales, Walter Harris, Joseph Heatherman, George Jones, Malcolm Kirk, Charles Lodge, Robert Lenkner, Howard Mildren, Joseph Patton, William Smith, Harry C. Girl's Glee Club

For the second time in the history of the Girls' Glee Club in Steubenville High School they presented a play entitled "Wild Rose" which was a great success.

Every member of the club had a part in the play and proved themselves capable actors.

The plot of the play "Wild Rose" is about a wealthy young lady who is tired of the fast city life and, when the leading part of a play entitled "Wild Rose" is refused to her, she gets disgusted with life and goes to the country to live. While there she becomes a friend of the author of the play who gives her the leading part in it.

The characters of the play are as follows:

Rose McCloud-----Monica Carr
 Bobbie-----Helen Weinstein
 Mary -----Virginia McCoy

Football Summary

The 1926 football season has been one of the greatest ever witnessed at S. H. S. Our team played 9 games and were victorious in all of them. They were only scored on three times. Three teams managed to score a lone touchdown against the locals but failed to kick the goal. Steubenville scored 363 points to their opponents 18.

Considering every phase the team was the greatest turned out at the local school in recent years. The line was very strong and proved tartar to the opposing teams and the backfield was one of the fastest we have seen in action around this section of the country.

Steubenville took over four new teams this season. These were Columbus East, Trinity High from Washington, Pa., Pittsburgh Oliver, and Columbus Aquinas, the latter being one of the teams which scored on the locals.

The team will lose some of its big assets in June. Those who are lost to the team are: Emilio DeLuca, Walter Shelton, William Loretta, James Shutt, Anthony Reduc-ha, Joseph Feist, Harry Smith and Louis Welsh.

SCHEDULE

*S. H. S. 72-----Mingo 0	S. H. S. 38-----Washington Trinity 0
*S. H. S. 32-----Columbus East 0	S. H. S. 42-----Pittsburgh Oliver 0
S. H. S. 35-----Johnstown 0	S. H. S. 35-----Oil City, Pa. 0
S. H. S. 20-----Youngstown South 6	S. H. S. 14-----Cathedral Latin 6
S. H. S. 56-----Columbus Aquinas 6

*These two games were forfeited 1-0 to the opponents by decision of State Athletic Commissioner.

ANTHONY REDUCHA—Captain—Right Tackle

“Tony” played a very good game at right tackle. He was hard to get through and he most always got his man. “Tony” led his team to their fifth successful season. He will not be back next year.

JAMES SHUTT—Right Half-back

“Shutty’s determination helped keep the morale of the team up against great odds. He was a very valuable ball carrier and ran through his opponents for gains that ran up to 70 yards. He will graduate in June.

EDWARD LITTLEJOHN—Left Tackle

“Eddie” sure was a whiz at tackle. He was in on every tackle and after he landed them they didn’t get far. You could always see a shining pair of teeth and that was the sign “Eddie” had landed his man. He will be back for more next year.

JOSEPH FEIST—Left End

“Joe” could most always stop the plays going around his end. He was hard to get around and was always after the ball carrier. “Joe” was successful in receiving a couple of passes that resulted in long gains. He will not be back in 1927.

HARRY SMITH—Quarterback

"Smitty" played his last game for the Crimson and Black on Thanksgiving day. Although the lightest man on the team, his lack of weight was offset by his speed and ability. He will leave us in June.

HAROLD FREELAND—Fullback

"Landers" played his first football this season. He was a good ball carrier and was always out to win. He was kept out of most of the games by an injury, but played his best while in there. He has one more year for Steubenville High.

WILLIAM LORETTA—Right Guard

"Bill" played some game at guard—very few plays got through him and he was successful in blocking the opponents punts in many cases. He was one of the most aggressive men on the line and could be counted on in a pinch. He will be claimed by Graduation.

EMILIO DELUCA—Fullback

"Duke"—a neat little line plunger always hunting the right hole to go through and he most generally found it. His untiring efforts helped him land a few touchdowns for his team. He played his first and last years for S. H. S.

WALTER SHELTON—Right End

"Dick" is one of our versatile players. He is one of those fellows who never says much but who is judged by action on the field. This is his last year with S. H. S.

CLIFFORD SPELLACY—Fullback and Halfback

"Cliff" divided his attention between full and halfback position and was acclaimed a great success at each position. He could hit the line and run end runs very well. He will be back for another year.

JAMES ENSELL—Left Guard

"Bottles" held his side of the line and recovered several fumbles which resulted in long gains for his team. He was the smallest man on the line but his opponents sure respected his earnestness. He has a few more seasons at S. H. S.

LOUIS WELSH—Center

"Louie" sure held the center of that line down. He was always in on every play and was one of the best tacklers on the line. He was called back a few times to dropkick a point and he made them all good. Another one lost by graduation.

WILLIAM COLES—Halfback

"Buddy" was shifted from end to halfback and he sure proved a success there. He was always on the go and pulled his team out of several holes by his clever ball carrying. He will be back for a taste of football again next year.

MORRIS MOORE—

"Legs" was a wizard at handling the cash. He was right there when it came to selling tickets and taking care of the money. Morris always kept one eye on the game and one eye on the money. He will not be back next year to help "Punk."

ROBERT BLACKBURN—

"Wamba" was chief of the labor gang. He was always there when there was any work to be done at the field and helped pass out equipment to the fellows when they needed it. He will be back next year for his third time as manager.

JAMES RINKER—

"Jimmy" could apply for a doctor's license if he needed to. He has had experience for two years at wrapping sprains and doctoring the boy's injuries. He has helped out at S. H. S. for two seasons and will be back next year for his third.

Boy's Basketball Summary

Twelve defeats out of 19 games played was the record made by the Steubenville High School boy's basketball team during the 1926-27 season.

This season was the poorest ever witnessed at S. H. S. The loss of Porter and Reducha in the mid-term was a big factor in the losing streak struck by the locals. Three of the six new foes of S. H. S. turned in four defeats against them. The new foes were Washington Trinity; Waynesburg, Pa.; W. V. U. Fresh; Kenmore, Akron; Bethany, and Pittsburgh Oliver.

S. H. S. piled up 416 points to their opponents 458. The team was entered in the Eastern Ohio Basketball tournament at Muskingum and got so far as the second round. They won their first game, but lost their second one to Bellaire.

Girl's Basketball Summary

With an unusual record the S. H. S. Girls clashed through an undefeated season. Game after game they showed their class and outplayed every team that stepped on the court. January 7 the team played the first game on the local floor. They defeated Mingo by a 28 to 10 score. Toronto was next on the list and they soon dropped out of the running, losing by a 24-9 score.

One of our highest scores was made when we played Bethany, finishing the game with a 60 to 19 score. East Liverpool, Mingo, Washington Trinity and McKee's Rocks were rapidly downed and Steubenville stood at the head with nine victories and no defeats.

ANDREW PORTER—

"Andy" was a good floor man and a good shot. He was only there for the first half of the season, but was fighting all the time. He graduates this year.

ANTHONY REDUCHA—Captain

"Tony", although he only played the first half of the season, was always heart and soul in the game. He was a good shot and a very good floor man. This is his last year.

WALTER SHELTON—Captain

"Dick" was a very good forward. He could hit the basket from most any angle. He was chosen captain after Reducha left. He will graduate in June.

HARRY SMITH—

"Smitty" played the other forward and was a fast worker. He was a fine floor man and always played his hardest. Graduation will claim him in June.

WILLIAM COLES—

"Buddy" played a stellar game at guard all season. He was always fighting whether the team was losing or winning. He will be back next year and will make a strong bid for his present position.

WILLIAM LORETTA—

"Bill" proved a great asset at the center position. He was only in for part of the season, but always put forth all he had in him. "Bill" was a whiz on short shots. He will not be back.

JOSEPH FEIST—

"Joe" alternated at center with Loretta and showed up very well when he was in the game. "Joe" could shoot from most any part of the floor and he made them good. He will not be back next year.

JOSEPH STERN—

"Joe", though only a freshman made his letter. He played a stellar game at guard and could not be beat for long shots. He was always playing to win and though they were losing, he always smiled. He will be back for three more years.

CHARLES LODGE—

"Chuck" broke in the lineup at Muskingum in the second game. He was a very able sub, always being at practice and always giving the team all the support he could. He will be back next year to try and make a varsity berth.

GARRET LEVAN—

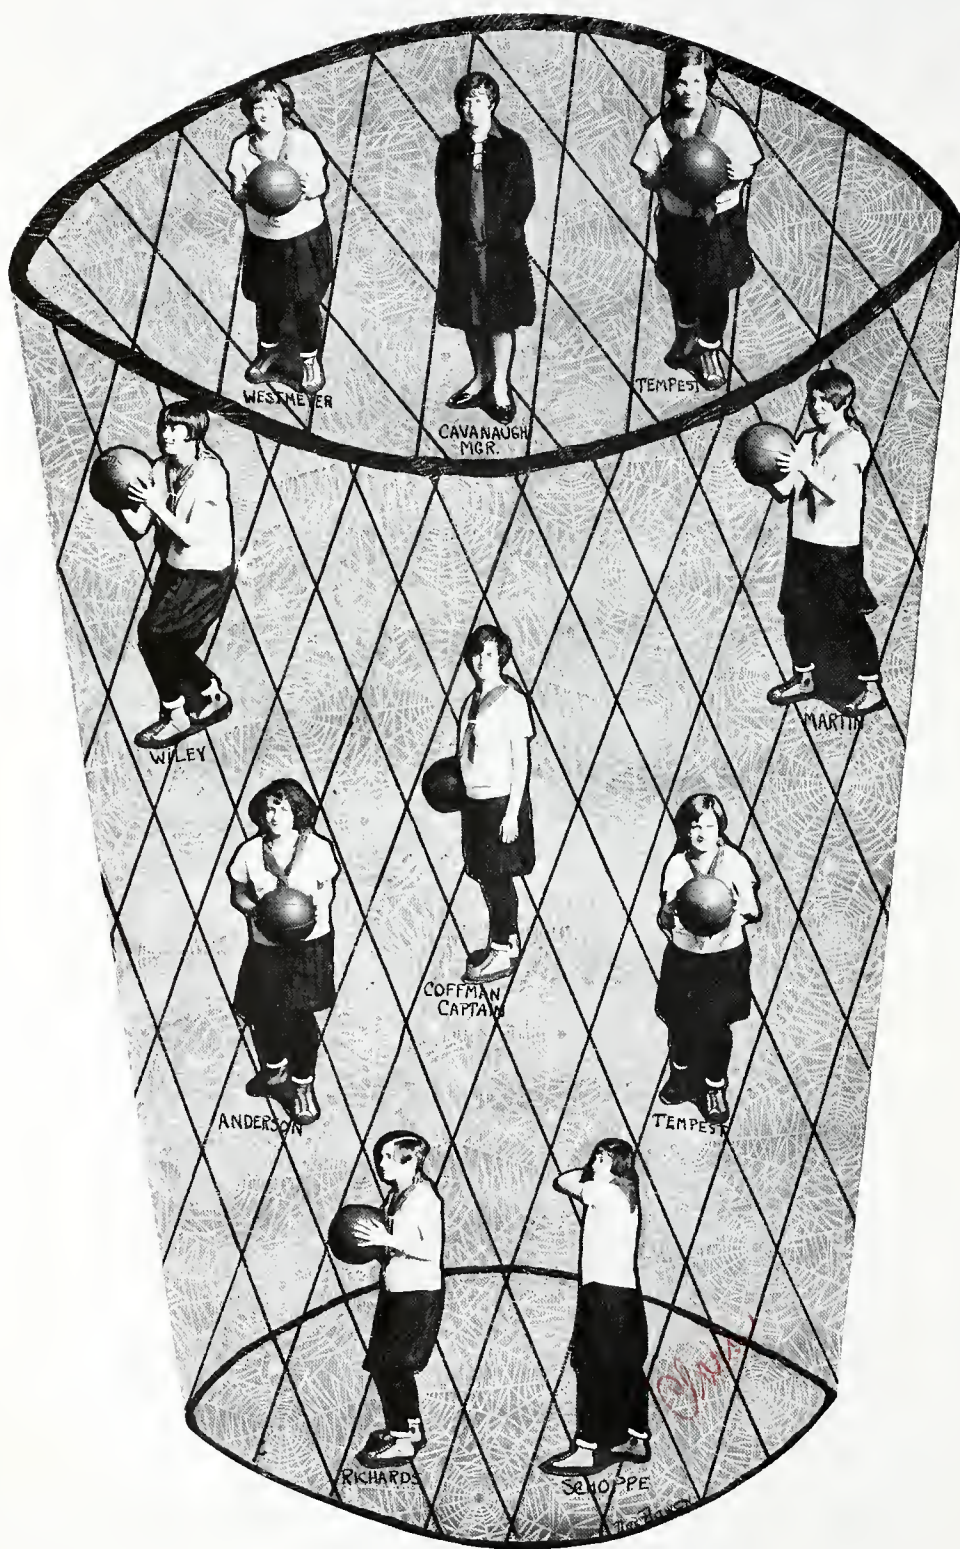

"Garry", as a reserve was always ready to go into the games, and when he did he always gave a good account of himself. He will be back next year to try for a forward position.

PETER TEPSIC—

"Pete", a reserve, got in quite a few games and showed up well in all of them. "Pete" could shoot well and he made them count. He will be back next year.

ORAL PFLUG—

"Pflugie", a reserve, showed some classy basketball in the few games he got in and always tried hard to win. He will be back next year and give them all a run for the varsity.

MONA COFFMAN—"Boots"—Captain—Center

Back again this year to captain the team through a successful season, Mona showed her capability as a leader, always encouraging the girls if defeat seemed near. She will graduate in June.

ELIZABETH WILEY—"Liz"—Captain-elect—Forward

Ready to shoot when opportunity presented and seldom missing, "Liz" has been chosen to captain the team through the coming season. She is known for her accurate shots.

GRACE MARTIN—"Gem"—Forward

Grace certainly delivered the goods when it came to locating the hoop. Her scoring ability will be greatly missed next year.

ESTHER TEMPEST—"Temp"—Guard

"Temp" was a constant hard worker and a big factor in the success of the team. Efficient and always on the alert. S. H. S. will feel her loss.

EMMA ANDERSON—"Em"—Guard

Showing unusual ability at guard this season "Em" earned a place on the Varsity. Teamwork is her outstanding characteristic.

CLARA SHOPPE—"Cleck"—Minor-Center

Here, there, everywhere, passing, dribbling, signalling; "Cleck" was always in the right place at the right time. We are glad that she will return next year.

MARY LOUISE WESTMEYER—"Westmyer"—Reserve Guard

Although "Westmyer" did not start every game, when she did play, her defense work showed skill; she will return next year.

EMMA TEMPEST—"Little Tempest"—Reserve Minor-Center

She isn't very big but Oh!—one of the speediest members of the squad. "Little Tempest" received her first letter, but we know it won't be her last one.

MABEL RICHARDS—"Rusty"—Reserve Minor-Center

Mabel, with two more years experience as minor center is going to prove a very dangerous player to any opponent. Teamwork is her password.

ANNA CAVANAUGH—"Jo"—Manager

We appreciate Anna's work during the season; she was always there when needed and proved to be an efficient manager.

A black and white photograph of four young people standing against a dark background. Three people stand in the back row, and one person sits in the front center. All are wearing light-colored shirts and dark belts. The person on the left is a young man with dark hair, wearing a light-colored short-sleeved button-down shirt and light-colored trousers with a dark belt. The person in the center back is a young man with short hair, wearing a light-colored short-sleeved button-down shirt and light-colored trousers with a dark belt. The person on the right is a young woman with short hair, wearing a light-colored short-sleeved button-down shirt and light-colored trousers with a dark belt. The person in the front center is a young woman with dark hair, wearing a light-colored long-sleeved shirt with a dark triangular patch on the chest.

In Appreciation

Only through concentrated effort and much co-operation on the part of the Journalism Class as a whole, has this issue of the Annual been made possible. To those firms whose advertisements appear in the next several pages of the Bulletin, we are truly grateful, for without this liberal patronage of the city's public spirited men, the publication of this Annual would probably be discontinued. In return, the S. H. S. students can only take into consideration the following advertisers and in return for their assistance, can do no less than patronize them in the future. Remember when you saw the ad in The Bulletin.

THERE is one primary and fundamental policy upon which a newspaper must build itself—honesty of purpose and general decency. Without that foundation it is not entitled to success. The Steubenville Herald-Star hopes to continue to succeed.

NOT A SPECK OF SOOT

That's the beauty of a Hotpoint Electric Range. The cooking utensils are always clean as new. It is less work to wash them and that means less time in the kitchen.

The kitchen walls and ceilings, too, are cleaner. The old smudge that used to appear above the range shortly after re-decorating is no longer present. With a Hotpoint Range, the kitchen is as clean as any room in the house—and it is easier to keep clean.

Come in and let us tell you about the many other advantages of the Hotpoint Electric Range.

What Does The Future Hold For You?

You are now standing at the threshold of life. Your whole future depends absolutely on the action you now take to get the proper training. Surely this situation is one that demands an immediate decision on your part.

A WISE DECISION

Is to finish your education in an Accredited School of Business, where you will receive a training that is modern and thoroughly practical, in the shortest time at the smallest cost. It will pay you to attend
